

EMOTIONAL SPIRITUAL CARE CONFERENCE CALL

8/31/2005

Attendees

Judy Thomas, FEMA

Susan Zuber, FEMA

Maite Roca, Proj. Hope

Vivian Taylor, Proj. Hope

Kathy Dillon, Church of Scientology kkad711@aol.com

Cheryl Ricciardi 3214276831

Deanna Polland

GeeDee Kerr, FIND

Peggy Garcia, UMC

No declaration in Miami is creating issues. Disaster Assistance Centers (DAC)s have been opened by the county. There is significant need for emotional spiritual care at both sites. Project Hope has manned the DAC locations and provided assessment feedback to Alex Sera, Emergency Management, Miami-Dade

FL Crisis Response Team will pick up this need with 2 counselors dispatched to each DAC. If there are additional needs we need to investigate.

Referrals from elderly population still coming in to EOC

Kathy Dillon, people in Baton Rouge, can get couple of counselors for Miami. Need to know where to send them. Will coordinate with Michael Salem, FRIEND.

Rich Bradley, FEMA Inquired about rescheduling this conference call beginning 9/1/05. Decision will be made after 2:00 call on 8/31.

We will watch for notices of change in meeting time.

There is an extreme need for emotional spiritual care in the Pensacola area as refugees from the storm stricken areas migrate there.